There are no translations available.

Proper processing of customs documents - almost half of the successful transport. But it requires commitment, attention and accuracy in the details ... and good relations with representatives of official bodies.

Based on many years of professional experience of successful customs clearance. MTR is ready to offer you the following range of services in customs brokerage with the greatest economic attractiveness:

- Negotiation and preparation of foreign trade contracts with the greatest possible benefit for you. Development and practical implementation of various logistic schemes in customs clearance and transit of goods, depending on the customs regime and place of delivery.
- Registration of the passport deal with maximum consideration of the conditions of the contract.
- Preliminary preparation of documents for customs clearance (analysis of documents, identification code of goods, certification of goods, obtaining of permits from other public services, the necessary financial entries, etc.).
- Calculation and maximum optimization of customs duties, monitoring of their use in the customs authorities.
- Declaration and customs clearance of cargo, goods on our own behalf and on behalf of the client,
- Registration of cargo customs declaration and the domestic customs transit.

Providing expert assistance in solving problems related to customs clearance. Representing the interests of companies in cases of violation of customs regulations.